

Manual 1
Particulars of organization, functions and duties
[Section 4(1)(b)(i)]

1. Aims and objectives of the organization

The Delhi Government established the Public Grievances Commission to provide a forum to redress problems the public encounter in dealing with the departments of the Govt. of NCT of Delhi. The Commission is an autonomous organisation. Its jurisdiction includes all Government Departments/Organisations/Public Undertakings and other institutions funded partially or fully by the Govt. of NCT of Delhi. This includes MCD, NDMC, Delhi Jal Board and Delhi Police.

2. Mission/Vision

The Commission was set up with the mission to take action against acts of omission or commission on the part of public officials working in the organisations of the Delhi Government and to recommend action for the removal of the grievances.

3. Brief history and background for its establishment

The Commission was set up by a Resolution dated 25th September 1997 as a functionally independent body with a view to provide a comprehensive mechanism for effective redressal of grievances against the departments of Govt. of Delhi, Local Bodies, Autonomous Institutions/Undertakings and organizations owned or substantially financed by the Govt. of Delhi. Delhi Police was later brought under its jurisdiction vide Resolution dated 30.7.1998.

4. Organization Charts

5. Allocation of business

The Public Grievances Commission is responsible for performing the following activities:-

- a) To redress the grievances of the public against the departments of Govt. of Delhi/Local Bodies and Delhi Police.
- b) Take suo motu action on issues of public importance coming to its knowledge through print media, electronic media or otherwise.
- c) Conduct research into systemic causes of complaints on a regular basis and provide such reports that can form the basis of bringing administrative reforms in areas needing improvement so that the administration becomes more transparent and responsive.
- d) To act as the Appellate Authority under the Delhi Right to Information Act, 2001.

6. Duties to be performed to achieve the mission

Any aggrieved person may make a complaint in writing to the Secretary of the Commission giving specific details of the grievances. Wherever the Commission is satisfied that the grievance has not been attended to by the concerned department or organization in a fair, just and objective manner or a corrupt practice appears to be involved, it takes up such cases for detailed scrutiny. The comments of the concerned Department are called. After the comments are received by a given deadline, the Commission hears the complainant and the representative of the concerned department jointly, in order to redress the grievance or find a solution. The hearing also facilitates the examination of generic issues which come before the Commission affecting a larger cross-section of citizens. Lawyers are not allowed to represent the complainants.

Public Grievances Commission also acts as the Appellate Authority under the Delhi Right to Information Act, 2001. The appeals submitted by the public are heard by the Chairman (PGC) in the presence of the appellant and the representative from the concerned department and suitable orders are passed by the Appellate Authority.

7. Details of service rendered

Since its inception, the Public Grievances Commission has received over 11974 complaints out of which over 11480 complaints have been disposed off till 31st March, 2007. As regards, the number of appeal filed under the Delhi Right to Information Act, 2001, over 2100 appeals have been filed out of which 2076 appeals have been decided by this Commission.

8. Citizens interaction

This office has a system by which the grievances of the public are settled in a meeting in which the complainant is present alongwith the representative from the concerned department. The cases are not closed till the complainant is completely satisfied with the response from the concerned department. Therefore, the citizens interaction with this office is on fairly regular basis. The staff of this office has been suitably sensitised to deal with the citizens visiting this office courteously.

9. Postal address of the main office and map

The office of the Public Grievances Commission is located in Vikas Bhawan, (Behind Central Revenue Building), I. P. Estate, New Delhi and its postal address is:-
